

Question 2: Choose the word true or false in front of the following:

1. The general facility has no elements.

* true

* false

2. The public facility is not under the control and supervision of the state:

* true

* false

3. Contingency theory means that natural or economic accidents or conditions arise during the implementation of the contract:

* true

* false

4. The sources of administrative law are: texts, custom, court rulings:

* true

* false

5. The rules of administrative law are codified in one legislative body:

true

* false

6. We don't see the rules of administrative law in organizational decisions (regulations):

true

* false

7. The constitutional text is not always superior to the legal text when there is a conflict between them:

true

* false

8. The contracting parties bear the loss due to the emergency circumstance of the execution of the contract

true

false

9. The basis of administrative law isn't the idea of a general facility.

* true

* false

10. Public facility is the activity that the state only gives directly to others.

* true

* false